HYDE HAS NOT CHANGED HIS CATALOG PRICES

Despite all the rumors of rising prices of Daffodils, Tulips, and other bulbs and plants for fall planting, our prices are the same as last year.

If you have a copy of Hyde's 1939-40 catalog, make up your order at the prices there quoted. If you do not have a copy, write us and one will be mailed promptly. Cash orders received by September 15, 1940, will be allowed 5 per cent discount.

We will have a supply of Tulips, but will be compelled to substitute for certain varieties. We also hope to have Hyacinths. Send us your order and we will ship as ordered, or advise regarding the best substitutes. Other listings in the catalog are in good supply as usual. Look for your catalog and send your order at once.

A SPECIAL GOODWILL OFFER. If you send us $1 we will send, when ready, Eight Jumbo Size Tubers Camellia-flowering Begonias—good selection of colors (regular value $1.50). Offer expires Oct. 1.
